

The Visitor

Hey visitor, who are you?
Are you the maker of Dreams?
The healer of hearts?
Why knock on my door?
Do you think I'll open?
Do you think I'll care?
My dreams are my own
My heart I don't share.
If I open the door
What will be there?
Is it the love of the one
Who is willing to care?
And give to me the love
He wants to share?
Hey visitor, don't stand out there
Come inside!
